CCCI and Bank of America to Sponsor Seminar for Professionals with Elder Clients

(Bristol, CT) -- Charles P. Sabatino, J.D., Director of the American Bar Association's Commission on Law and Aging, will be the keynote speaker at a seminar entitled, "Myths and Realities: Determining Capacity of Elders in Law and Professional Practice," on June 6, 2007.

The seminar, sponsored by Bristol-based Connecticut Community Care, Inc. (CCCI), and Bank of America, will be held at the Farmington Marriott Hotel from 6:30 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Following Sabatino's presentation, a distinguished panel of Connecticut experts in the legal, financial and health care professions will join the discussion with their perspectives. The panelists include:

The Hon. Dianne E. Yamin, President-Judge, Connecticut Probate Assembly;

Keith Bradoc Gallant, a partner with Day Pitney and Chair of the Estates & Probate Section of the Connecticut Bar Association;

Harry E. Morgan, M.D., President of the Center for Geriatric and Family Psychiatry;

Daniel S. Flynn, MSW, STB, CMC, Care Manager Supervisor for CCCI's North Central Region; and Daryl L. Gordon, Market Fiduciary Manager, Private Bank, Bank of America.

The fee for the seminar is $49.00 per person. Reservations can be made by contacting the CCCI Development Office at 860-589-6226, ext. 5147.

CCCI is a statewide, private, nonprofit organization dedicated to assisting the elderly and individuals with disabilities to remain at home, avoiding premature nursing home placement. For nearly 30 years, CCCI has helped more than 100,000 clients and families through the state-funded Connecticut Home Care Program for Elders (CHCPE) and through its private-pay division, Care Management Associates, saving the state and its taxpayers millions of dollars each year that would have been spent on premature institutionalization. CCCI has regional offices in Watertown, Wethersfield and Norwich.
